MATRIX MAGICIANS WHO MADE WHO AND WHO MADE YOU

By TREVOR WARD

Have you noticed life has become very complex, that government officials lie and misrepresent the truth? You find history taught to you is only partly true and important details left out or explained away. That the media fails to ask the hard questions or reports only what they want you to hear. As the destruction of the Twin Towers showed, something is terribly wrong with reality. The changing narratives, the subsequent cover up by the government and media, and the invasion of Afghanistan and Iraq on a faulty pretext, are all part of this Matrix.

Before we continue, a disclaimer is necessary. I am not a legal expert on the workings of the Matrix, but a spiritual being and master of a vessel having a human experience.

The subtitle for this article is from a song by hard rock band AC/DC – ‘Who Made Who’. The song’s chorus says in part, “Who made who, who made you. Who made who, ain’t nobody told you. If you made them and they made you. Who picked up the bill, and who made who.” The choice of this song and lyrics will become much clearer as you read on.

A matrix is usually described as a set of conditions that provides a system in which something grows or develops. However, the Matrix I am referring to is somewhat pernicious and not about assisting our growth or development.

To determine who made who, a few things need defining. A corporation is a legal construct with many of the rights and obligations of a living being and called a “legal person.” A corporation conducts commerce in the ‘Public domain’, while a living person resides in the ‘Private domain’. To engage in commerce, the living person on the private side must cross to the public side. However, if we look at the word ‘corp-oration’ we find it is Latin for a body that speaks in public and a corpse that can only speak for or to the dead.

The truth about this division is the living person on the private side has unlimited liability and the public side limited liability. While that is inequitable, the point is, you have a higher status because the living person has unlimited capacity while the public side has a limited capacity. (In fact, it cannot exist without you).

Already we can see a major distinction between corporations and living beings in that corporations have most of the rights but not the same obligations as living persons. For example, only a live person goes to jail, has voting rights and can create life. To create is a critical point because everything a person does is in the present moment. A ‘legal person’ (corporation) is not present because it is not alive. In occult terms it is the reverse of live = evil. If we re-arrange the words of live and evil, we come up with veil that sits between the two words (worlds). It then becomes the corporate veil, where actions are justified as on behalf of the corporation, implying it is not personal. Try telling that to whistle-blowers when the system turns on them.

This reveals one of the major pieces to the puzzle, private versus public. However, the Matrix has multiple layers all designed to mask how life and commerce works. The design of the system protects those behind the administrators, like a firewall from karmic retribution for the lie that YOU need administering, because you unknowingly used the property/trademark held in trust. You accept this karma (burdened by debt) as a slave to the system, which will be discussed further.

The Matrix runs on occult (hidden) lines containing ritual and magic, in that words with common usage have special powers and meanings when scribed in statutes.

Let me demonstrate how ritual and magic in commerce is applied to your birth and how your status changes in this artificial Matrix.

According to many Births, Deaths and Marriages Acts, you were born as a child “by expulsion or extraction from your mother.” The Acts go on to define a child simply as, “includes a stillborn child.”

A curious description. There are only two conclusions you can draw from this. A stillborn can act as a child, but a child cannot act as a stillborn. Yet in Blacks Law 4th edition,

LIVE
VEIL

All the 'actors' in a court of law wear black robes. Why?

the word includes has a special meaning and in Latin is "Inclusio Unius Est Exclusio Alterius." It means the inclusion of one is the exclusion of another. That precise designation of one person is an absolute exclusion of all others. In reality a child is an infant under the age of seven years and a minor under the age of majority. The unanswered question then, is the legal child alive or dead?

This is only one of the ways tying you to the Matrix at birth because of your legal status. Following your birth, your mother registers you under her maiden name, acting as the 'informant' to your birth. The witnesses to a live birth are the hospital staff, not the father (he has no role in the registration process). Your mother creates the Estate and forms a Trust with you as the beneficiary. However, the manner of registering the birth renders you as that of a "legal bastard," with no inherited bloodline and no estate ascribed, as there is no paternal holder of your estate.

This is an alchemical¹ process that permits the State/Crown to claim the Estate as you are legally dead and without capacity. You are 'resurrected' as YOU when the State/Crown commercialises your name creating an artificial entity in such a way that your name (you) is capitalised and becomes a corporate entity and their intellectual property as (YOU). Note the word 'capitalise' means to diminish (i.e. capitalise on someone's misfortune). The status of you has become upper case YOU[®], a trademark that has monetary value.

In Greek mythology, crossing the river Styx divided the land of the living from the world of the dead. In order to cross, souls must pay Charon the ferryman to get to the underworld. Legally, you have crossed the river Styx to become YOU on the public side, land of the dead, where commerce takes place. The corporation is not in the land of the living. Is this not occult ritual magic? This horror story is the reverse of the 1931 Frankenstein movie and its subtitle: 'The Man Who Made a Monster'.

The rituals continue in court; notice all the 'actors' in court wear black robes. Does that not tell you they're playing roles in the world of the dead? The role of the court is to get you, the living person, to cross the river Styx to the world of the dead, so that commerce can take place and induce you to confess the sins of the legal YOU and pay penance, similar to the workings of the Spanish Inquisition. Therefore, the courts use a mixture of Common law, Maritime (Admiralty) Law, Commercial Law (UCC²) and Canon (Church) Law, for the purpose of commerce, when a statute or regulation is broken.

Enacted Statutes are purely based in commerce via contract law, where there has to be an offer, an acceptance/informed consent, and some form of consideration for it to be binding. Statute law begins with a Bill (negotiable instrument) and when enacted by parliament has a statutory instrument attached creating bylaws, ordinance or regulations to which usually attaches a fine, levy, fee or penalty.

In Common Law, for someone to have a claim, there must be harm done to a living being or their property. Yet if you break one of the statute laws and do no harm to any person or thing, the government and judiciary, in the name of the people, play the role of victim, judge and executioner (fines). On behalf of you, they charge, judge, convict and fine the name, YOU[®] and get you to pay. Notice how things are switched, as they use your Estate and act as beneficiary, when in fact the State/Crown/judiciary is the trustee, yet in court they make you the trustee and liable for the fine by answering to the NAME[®]. So much for justice dispensed transparently.

Have you ever wondered why the English language is the global language for commerce and finance? From Wikipedia we paraphrase this statement: "...this vernacular French suffered a rapid decline; the Pleading in English Act 1362 (Statute of Pleading) acknowledged this change by ordaining that henceforward court proceedings be conducted in English, which eventually developed into Legal English." This is a system where letters joined together have hidden or multiple meanings. Again, this is occult magic and alchemy where transmuted words are for a special purpose. We, the uninitiated, aren't privy to the meaning of these words and only taught common usage. Therefore, in court, they don't tell you when common usage is in vogue or when legalese is being spoken.

Here is one example. When a police officer reads you your rights, they will say, "do you understand?" If you answer 'yes' you are consenting to 'stand-under' their authority, you have crossed to the public domain for the purpose of commerce.

The monetising of YOU[®] allows the State/Crown to issue a Birth Certificate Bond like a warehouse receipt for title to goods or property (a cash cow) and turn it into a negotiable instrument as a security. That security is used as a surety for borrowings (debt slavery) by the State/Crown under special drawing rights from the International Monetary Fund or sold as a bond to the World Bank (Bank of International Settlements). The fiction continues in that there is no money created. They are trading off your energy, labour and sweat-equity (non-monetary labour) via a debt system and Fiat currency backed by nothing, just a value subscribed by the Matrix.³

This is far from the end of the deception; as the cliché goes, “there is more than one way to skin a cat.” In registering the birth, the parents conduct commerce by contracting with the State/Crown and in doing so receive certain benefits. For example, Child Endowment for each child in the past is now Family Tax Benefits or Child Tax Benefits in the USA. Therefore, it is not possible to repudiate this contract and reclaim your estate as it would be difficult to return the consideration received. The Matrix relies on your ignorance and consent. It is through your ignorance of the law and your rightful standing that circumvents your rights and maintains the illusion of a just, fair and free society.

At this point, let’s step back and take a deep breath, as you’re probably reeling from the level of deception and feeling confused. Just remember at all times, you are a living being not a dead fiction. That States, Governments and the Crown have no higher authority than you do and that ultimately you only counter to the public and your interests. In their system, those decisions make perfect sense.

When one examines the Matrix, the deception runs deep. The best analogy is a scene from the story of ‘Alice in Wonderland’ where the rabbit invites her into his burrow. The rabbit hole runs very deep and reality turns on its head.

As if the system has not put enough nails in your coffin, there’s more. After the Great Fire of London in 1665 and the Black Plague in 1666, the British Parliament passed an act called Cestui Que Vie Act 1666 (CQV).⁴ The City of London simply declared everyone dead after an absence of seven years (i.e. a vessel lost at sea – Admiralty Law) and took custody of answer to the Prime Creator or whatever name you choose to use, who gifted you with a soul (not the body). That you have the right to self-determination and the only obligation placed upon you by your Prime Creator is do no harm to the life, liberty or property of another living entity. No statute, court or public servant can take that inalienable right of self-determination away from you except where you give informed consent. Even in the US Constitution it recognises this point: “...unalienable rights of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.”

I get the sense in trying to unravel the Matrix that it has developed over thousands of years, as far back as ancient Mesopotamia. Perhaps this is what the Indian Vedas describe as the Kali Yuga cycle (the Age of Darkness). Nevertheless, like all cycles, it will end and so will the Matrix that controls our daily lives, as something that is dead cannot live except through the living man and women.

Do you sense world events appear upside down and back to front from a common sense viewpoint? Do you feel dissatisfied and frustrated, wondering why you’re not getting ahead? Then the Matrix may have something to do with those feelings. Once you understand that the Matrix is only about commerce and control, then you will have some understanding why CEOs, government officials and politicians make the decisions they do, that seem their property and became a de facto trustee for their estate, until a person still living makes a claim against the estate.

When a child turns seven years of age (no longer an infant) and the parents haven’t made a claim for return of the child’s estate, then the child is declared “a vessel lost at sea.” Without a will, the Public Trustee applies to the Family Court to be appointed trustee under various Protection of Personal and Property Rights and Securities Acts.

However, at Common Law there are limitations on a trustee to hold property indefinitely, so the trustee must vest a trust within 21 years of the death of the party to the trust, which just happens to be the age of majority. Nevertheless, instead of gaining access to your Estate you receive voting rights, a driver’s license, passport and other limited benefits that do not represent the value of the incorporation of your name. Furthermore, the government can remove those rights and other benefits at any time (e.g., in Australia, if you do not vaccinate your child you lose Family Tax benefits).

If you think you own your residence, land and vehicles, think again. All title to property of a person that requires registration belongs to the State/Crown as you have handed over title through registration.⁵ However, the State/Crown provides a certificate or license permitting possession and use of the property. If you disagree then look at your Title

Three different popes wearing the three-tiered crown.

Deeds. It says Record of Certificate of Title, yet in the body of the certificate, you and any other holder are described as joint tenants or tenants in common, all in upper case (i.e. all caps, legal YOU).

Note also, a tenant is a person who occupies or possesses land or premises by a grant or estate or a person who has the right to temporary use and possess the property. The State/Crown grants a right to the quiet enjoyment of property, a right you have purchased and can transfer. However, the title to the land rests with the State/Crown.

Similarly, with your registered vehicles, a licence is granted to possess and operate the vehicle and your name on the licence is in all caps too.

We assume that living beings elect governments to serve the public interest, hence why they are public servants. However, in reality all government entities including Parliament are registered corporations and just the public servants change. The system never changes only the actors playing the game.

In Australia, there is confirmation of this with the COMMONWEALTH OF AUSTRALIA Corporation having a SEC filing in Washington D.C. and filed as early as 1934, soon after the 1929 Great Depression. The Commonwealth Parliament, all government departments, agencies and the judiciary are subsidiary corporations registered with ASIC.

The process of multi-jurisdictional foreign registration creates a series of interlocking trusts of our Estate assets between Washington D.C., the City of London and the Vatican. The British Crown owns the Virginia Company that controls the franchise name UNITED STATES OF America.

The Vatican has been preparing the way for this since at least 1302 when Pope Boniface under a Papal Bull "Unam Sanctam" (One Holy Church) established the first of three Cestui Que Vie Trusts. The first (CQV) Trust claims control of the property of the planet.

The second (CQV) Trust was created in 1481 by Pope Sixtus IV with Papal Bull "Aeterni Regis" (Eternal Crown) created for each child born under the Birth registration process previously described.

The third (CQV) Trust was created in 1537 by Pope Paul III, with Papal Bull "In Nomine Sancte" (in name of the Holy Spirit). It is the third and final testamentary trust set up to claim all "lost souls," lost to the Holy See. The souls referred to are those of baptised children granting title to the church registrar. So within Maritime/Admiralty law a vessel (the baptised) is 'under' the sea and without a Master (soul) is salvageable property under the (CQV) Trust.

Therefore the three-tiered crown of the Pope represents claims on temporal (Earthly) property, personal property (body or vessel of the child) and spiritual body (soul).

It is alleged that under the three (CQV) Trusts the Vatican is holding the temporal and spiritual property in trust for the return of the Christ. The irony here is that in the Bible, Jesus kicked the money changers and trinket sellers out of the temple. I wonder when he's coming back for his stuff? That aside, high officials create trusts to hold property and appoint others to administer the trusts to avoid karmic responsibility and uphold any vow of poverty.

Note that the 1929 Stock Market Crash was an engineered takeover with the Commonwealth of Nations and United States placed in bankruptcy following the Great Depression as noted here:

"On March 9, 1933, House Joint Resolution No. 192-10 by the 73rd Congress, was voted into law, which is the Emergency Banking Act. This Act declared the Treasury of the United States, Bankrupt. The Emergency Banking Act succeeded in abrogating America's gold standard and hypothecated [pledged] all property found within the United States to the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve Bank. All Sovereign American Citizens residing within the Republic of States suddenly and falsely expatriated from their status without their knowledge or consent. Their labour, souls, children, property, sweat equity and credit became the financial collateral for the public debt and converted into a Public Trust."

At the same time in Australia it appears the Constitutional Commonwealth of Australia became Commonwealth of Australia, a corporation. Then between 1972 and 1973 the name Commonwealth disappeared. It seems government publications in 1972 were called "The Acts of the Parliament of the Commonwealth of Australia." Then, in 1973, government publications⁶ were called "The Acts of the Parliament of the Australian Parliament" (the word Commonwealth removed). Finally, it became Corporation of Australia with the corporate charter being the AUSTRALIA ACT 1986. So what happened to the 'common people' and their 'wealth'? Did anyone get to vote on this?

As far as I am aware, nothing has changed and bankruptcy continues today as the US and Commonwealth countries cannot repay the debts and accruing interest. Current and future generations will continue to be pledged to the Banksters. The debt slavery system is sucking the life out of our communities. You can see the effects in the European Union as it begins to falter and fracture. One can only conclude there are very few conjuring tricks left in the bag. Globally, combined debt in 2015 was around US$230 trillion, more than 3.2 times greater than global Gross Domestic Product.⁸ In Australia, the debt levels in 2014 were 2.3 times GDP, in the USA 2.5 times GDP and in the UK even higher at 2.7 times. There comes a point where the Matrix ends up on life support, which is a big concern. There is a potential of 'Bail-ins' being used where deposit accounts over a fixed amount become the capital of the banks to maintain liquidity.

CONCLUSION

This article hardly scratches the surface. The more I have read about the Matrix, the more I am reminded of a Donald Rumsfeld quote, paraphrased: "there are known knowns; the things I know, there are known unknowns; the things I know I don't know. Then there are also unknown unknowns." As you peel back one layer, there's another.

To release you from bondage to the Matrix seems to be a double-edged sword. My understanding from this study is all the goodies and benefits are on the public side, not the private side. For example, subsidised health care, pensions etc. To try to vest your Estate from the State/Crown is problematic because there is no money on the private side and all the State/Crown can do is issue a bond, a debt instrument on the public side. However, no bank on the public side will accept your debt instrument unless it is to set-off, settle or discharge another debt on the public side.

To become self-determining and self-sufficient, and not rely on the Matrix, is a difficult but not an impossible path. However, you will need to be strong minded and spiritually prepared. You will also need to do your own independent research and have the support of other similar-minded community. I would not advise doing this alone as the Matrix will fight you all the way for its survival. A word of caution: changing your status and calling yourself a "Sovereign" or "Freeman," particularly in the US, will get you branded a terrorist and a target for harassment. The key point is, never identify with any label, as all that does is diminish who you really are.

My recommended solutions are to ignore the fear-based aspects generated by mainstream media as it does not serve you. It feeds your energy to the Matrix. Watch as little TV as possible. Consume less. You don't need the latest gadget because it is better than version 5. Most importantly, focus on clearing debts. These are some of the first steps towards gaining your freedom.

It is sad to say, but the Matrix by design has stunted our ability to fully develop our talents and grow spiritually. As living beings, we cannot grow and be at peace while we are under the spell of the Matrix that interferes in our daily life. The more we illuminate the deception, the more the darkness will disappear. Just know you are much more than a name. It matters not who the Matrix magicians are because the magic only lasts while there is mystery around their sleight-of-hand. At the heart of the fear mongering, the distractions, loss of freedoms and rights, is the fact that those behind the Matrix are in fear of us. They know the survival of the Matrix is completely dependent on our participation.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

We should not forget the brave souls who over the years have researched the subject of the Matrix. To expose the system under which we labour is a mind-numbing exercise. Much of the article I have sourced from their works. To determine the truth means they had to take the Matrix head-on and test the theories and have been selfless in revealing the truth for their fellow human beings.
